

April 23, 2009

Washington, D.C. – Congressman Jerry McNerney (CA-11) spoke today on the House floor to honor the “Mr. Speaker, I rise today to honor the memory of Sandra Cantu, a child whose life was cut tragically short.

“Now known as “Tracy’s precious angel,” Sandra was a cheerful, friendly girl whose joy for life was evident.

“Her horrific kidnapping and death is a tragedy beyond description. No parent should have to experience

“I’m touched by the outpouring of support for Sandra’s family from Tracy’s residents, and the tireless work